

What's so different about raising a gifted child?

Keynote by
Dr. Jann Leppien, Ph.D.
Whitworth University
Center for Gifted Education

- Learn from experts about gifted characteristics & needs
- Gain specific parenting advice for the gifted population
- Collect resource information on where to get help
- Learn the Washington State laws regarding gifted education
- Facilitated discussions with other parents over lunch (bring your own bag lunch)

Giftedness is a family affair: you are not alone

Connections Conference 2014 March 8: 9am - 4pm

John Stanford Center for Educational Excellence
2445 3rd Avenue South
Seattle, WA 98134

Discussion topics include:

- What parents need to know about smart kids
- Whirlwinds, firecrackers and the aftermath: Nurturing executive functioning and emotional regulation skills
- The pivotal role of parents in advocacy
- Introverts, extroverts & everyone between
- Unique parent, unique child: Understanding ourselves through our children

New this year!
Ages 5-12 Kids' track:

A full day of spy activities
Code cracking
Escape & stealth skills
Design and create gadgets
$20 by Feb. 9/$30 after Feb 9

Northwest Gifted
Child Association

Discount registration by February 9, 2014:
Adult-$60, Partner-$5, Family of 4-$105
After February 9:
Adult-$65, Partner-$5, Family of 4-$130

www.nwgca.org

Scan to register
NOW

Hosted by Seattle Public Schools